SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

The shift was a busy shift, and officers were responding to call for most of the shift. Officers made a traffic enforcement stop on a vehicle and the driver had warrant and was driving without a license. He was arrested and cited for the violations. Shortly afterwards an officer contacted a subject who was laying on the grass new a retail store. The officer saw that he was extremely sleepy and had a small square of aluminum foil in his hand. When the officer walked closer to the subject, he could see that the subject had been smoking a narcotic from the top of the foil. He was arrested for possession of Fentanyl. During a search, the officer found a citation that the subject received about 5 hrs. earlier. This was also for possession of a narcotic. The subject was taken to jail.
