SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

An officer was patrolling the downtown entertainment district and observed a vehicle driving in the 100 block of W. Main St. The driver of the vehicle almost hit two pedestrians as they were crossing the street. The driver pulled over and started to argue with the pedestrians. The patrol officer also contacted the driver. The driver displayed symptoms of being under the influence of alcohol. The driver refused to do sobriety test and was arrested for DUI. He refused to provide a breath or blood sample and a warrant was obtained. After a force blood draw was completed at a local hospital, the driver was booked into jail.
