1 Sick Person - Mental

1 Domestic Disturbance

SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

It was a busy start for the Graveyard Shift tonight. Officers spent the beginning of the shift assisting Swing Shift with calls for service. The calls for service slowed down as the night progressed. During the night officers made several traffic enforcement stops and performed extra patrols in certain areas. During the night officers responded to a female who was at a business in the southern portion of the city. The female was acting erratic and walking into traffic. When she was contacted, she wrapped herself around a telephone pole, in an attempt to keep from being detained. She was removed safely and was placed on a mental health hold.
