SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

Officers responded to a carjacking that occurred in the parking lot of a shopping center. The victim had parked his vehicle and got out while his vehicle was still running. The victim was approached by an unknown male and female. The male grabbed the victim by his shirt while holding a knife and demanded the vehicle from the victim. The male and female then got into the vehicle and drove away. The area was checked but the suspects were not located. Another officer made a traffic stop and contacted the driver who had a suspended license and an out-of-county warrant. During a search the driver was found to be in possession of narcotics. He was arrested and booked. Officers also responded to a trespassing in-progress. The female suspect was refusing to leave a gas station and had shoplifted a drink from the store. She was determined to have warrants out of Modesto and Turlock. She was arrested and taken to jail.
