

Sunday, July 13, 2025

The Turlock Police Department processed 150 calls for service during the three shifts covering July 13, 2025. This includes the following attached notable police activities and reports taken for the 24-hour period of Sunday, July 13, 2025.

SHIFT: DAY SHIFT

Sgt. Crawford

NUMBER OF REPORTS: 4

CATEGORIES

1 Embezzlement
1 Resisting Arrest

1 Missing Person

1 Larceny

SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

Today was a peaceful Sunday for most of the day. Officers handled an embezzlement case, a missing person case and a theft of two cows. This afternoon, an made a traffic stop and the male driver pulled into an apartment complex and took off running. A perimeter was set and drone launched but he was not located. Follow-up is being done to identify the suspect.

SHIFT: SWING SHIFT

Ofc Conrad

NUMBER OF REPORTS: 3

CATEGORIES

1 DUI Collision

1 Traffic Offense

1 Public Intoxication

SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

The beginning of the shift started off slow, allowing officers to catch up on reports and focus on proactive patrols. Later in the shift officers responded to two separate collisions scenes that occurred one shortly after the other. Officers quickly determined that a driver had fled the first scene and was at the scene of the second collision. The driver was under the influence and arrested for hit-and-run and driving under the influence.

SHIFT: GRAVEYARD SHIFT

Sgt. Cervantez

NUMBER OF REPORTS: 7

CATEGORIES

1 Pursuit	2 Warrant Arrest	1 Public Intoxication
1 Resisting Arrest	1 Sick Person Suicide	1 DWI

SUPERVISOR COMMENTS

An officer saw a vehicle speeding and tried to stop it. The vehicle failed to stop and a pursuit was started. After a short chase. the driver decided to stop and was detained. He showed obvious signs of intoxication and was arrested for DUI and evading. Another officer saw a vehicle leaving a bar at a high rate of speed, and then run through a stop sign. After a traffic stop was done the driver was determined to be DUI. He was arrested and booked. Officers were also dispatched to a suspicious person who was on someone's front yard yelling. The male was very intoxicated and became aggressive with officers. He pushed up against an officer and kicked an officer; he also spit at officers. He was arrested and a WRAP had to be used to secure him for the ride to jail.